JUVENILE DELINQUENCY NOT INCREASING IN THE COUNTY

Ladge J. G. Stuart Stanbury In Address Before County Celebrates His Council Says Increase Is Negligible Compared To Population Growth.

EFFICIENT OFFICIALS

St. Catharines City And County Have Grown By 12,-000 Since 1940 - Juvenile Cases Increased Only By Eight.

Juvenile delinquency in St. Catharines and Lincoln County is not increasing at an abnormal rate, despite what organizations, and particularly women's groups, maintain, said Judge J. G. S. Stanbury, K.C., last week, Judge Stanbury, who is judge of the juvenile court, was speaking before the Lincoln county council at its annual dinner at the Lincoln County Home.

"There is a wrong impression in this county and in the city of St. Catharines about juvenile delinquency," said Judge Stanbury. "There may be an increase generally in the dominion-wide statisties, but in the juvenile court of Mayor Johnson this county there has not been an abnormal increase either in the Opens New Church city or county.

"Where we hear from every platform, especially where women are meeting, that they deplore the increase in juverile delinquency, they (Conunued on page 7)

Basket Situation Will Be Serious

Growers And Manufacturers Hold Conference To See What Can Be Lone To Assure Full Basket Supply.

Suggestion that fruitgrowers of their helpers could relieve an acute labour situation in the basket factories by going to work in these factories during the winter montus was made at a fruitgrowers' meeting here last Thursday afternoon by William Davidson, agricultural adviser of Selective Service Commission, Ontario division.

This suggestion brought forth; the information from such wellknown growers as J. J. Smith and Grimsby Soldier J. P. Bridgman, of Winona; Harold Woolverton, Grimsby; A. W. Smith and Ernest Culp, of Vineland, that the growers themselves are seriously handicapped by lack of help that they are unable to extend any assistance in the line of labour.

Mr. Davidson told the meeting, called by Niagara Peninsula Fruitgrowers' Association, that basket production is now 25 per cent. below pormal owing to shortage of labour. "Unless something is done (Continued on page 8)

ROBERTSON

Pte. George Robertson, Sr. (left), Canadian Forestry Corps and his son, Pte. Arthur Robertson, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

Little did Robert Robertson, Sr., Clarke Street, think when he landed in Grimsty district in the early 80's from England, that some day he would have nearly a platoon of sons and grandchildren in the uniform fighting for "The Tight Little Isle" that gave him birth. Today there are nine of the Robertson Clan in the Army, the Navy and Waac's.

Pte. George Robertson has only recently returned from two years and two months service overseas with his unit, the Canadian Forestry Corps, and is now stationed somewhere in the Rockies cutting big timber for the making of Mosquitoes. His brother "Jimmy" is across the pond with the R.C.A. and another brother "Bobby", the old Peach King goaltender, is overseas with the R.C.A.S.C., a fourth brother William, is a veteran of the first World War and is taboo for outfit three years previous to the outbreak of hostilities and now has four years and over of war service. He has seen plenty of action on the seven seas during that time. He holds three medals and three ribbons;

Convoy medal; English Overseas medal; North Atlantic medal. He was in Toronto recently for a few hours with his crew mates, taking over a newlylaunched corvette. His mether and wife had a bref reunion with him then.

Just previous to leaving for overseas, Driver Reginald Ferris, R. C. A. S. C., married Margaret Robertson, daughter of George and thus brought all members of the Rocertson family into the war zone.

The George Robertson children come by their loyaity to their country and Empire naturally, not only from the Robertson side of the house but from the mother's side, as she was a Warner, daughter of the late "Chummy" Warner, who served in the Boer war and in the last war in Canada and had six sons overseas.

WAR SAVING STAMPS ON CHRISTMAS CARDS

In this fifth year of war, there is only one thought in our minds.

Only one hope in our hearts . . . To win the Victory that will bring our boys

And make possible, once again,
"Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

"Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men." So, in this year of war

Let's add a Victory note
To our customary Christmas greetings...
Let's put a War Savings Stamp on every card

On every Christmas message we've planned to send to customers:

On every Christmas card and letter we address

Yes, this year, let's all join in.

And make a Christmas Card Crusade for Freedom!

For every War Savings Stamp we buy and send

Will help bring Victory nearer . . . will help create

A vast reserve of buying power which,

Unleashed by Peace, will bring prosperity and jobs

For all our boys when they come home.

"BE IT EVER SO HUMBLE"

Who said the grass was greener in the other fellow's Province? It wasn't the Toronto soldier stationed in Vancouver. Nor the Winnipegonian based in Halifax. A Waac from Edmonton wouldn't be bribed to admit that Yonge Street had anything on Jasper Avenue's shopping promenade.

The more servicemen and women travel about the country, the more intense becomes their loyalty to the home town. The place where they were stationed before always benefits by comparison with the later one.

Take a poll on any train. Watch the Westerner on furlough whistle as he crosses the On'ario-Manitoba Line. Home again! "God's country," he says. Going in the other direction is the Easterner with the same sentiment thumping under his shirt. "God's country," he breathes as the train races down the rails between tall buildings and into tightly packed cities.

Canadians are seeing more of Canada today than they ever did in peace-time, but they are seeing it under conditions that are far from normal. Even so, many are making the most of their opportunities to explore and enjoy new surroundings. Home town loyalties remain unshaken, however, and "Loome, Sweet Home" is the theme song of every man and woman in the service.

FREE PUBLICITY

If 'very piece of advertising, or free publicity, which comes to a newspaper editor's deal marked "News Release — important," could be published and paid for at space rates, editors would be able to spend their winters in Florida and their summers in the mountains or at the sea shore and still have sufficient funds left to assure the "ghost-walking" regularly once a week and to take care of the sundry taxes, opines The Bowmanville Statesman.

Not a day passes without from one to a dozen of these leech letters appearing with the morning's mail. They come from all directions and varied sources. Some of them are clever—exceedingly clever—and the editor has to scrutinize carefully to discern the hidden advertising.

At moments he may be in sympathy with the project advanced, but there come to him visions of the clever publicist, sitting at a mahogany desk bigger than a mountain, puffing a 25c cigar and pocketing a salary well up into the thousands because of his ability to put over free publicity, and he ceases to feel benevolent.

HEAR! HEAR!

We have always naintained a healthy respect for the judiciary, and for judicial opinion, and these have not in any way been lessened by the remarks of Magistrate Watt, of Guelph, who in a recent letter to J. V. McAree, of the Globe and Mail, said:

"Referring to your column re cuffs on trousers, I don't care whether they have them or not, but if the Government is really in earnest about saving material, let it prohibit the sale of suits with long trousers for boys under 16. Let the boys wear the short pants that you and I did when we were kids. Besides saving thousands of yards of cloth, the small boys would look like small boys and not as they do now, like grotesque cartoons of men or disreputable midgets out of some second-rate side show."

Such a law might improve a boy's mechanical operation morals and manners too. He would not get the mistaken impression so early in life, that in old times. Also long pants really make a man of him, and people drive long dacking that supposed badge of manhood, jobs, their fatigue might make him a little more susceptible to parental and other authority.

THRIFT

Perhaps there never has been a time in history when lessons on the value of thrift were more needed than in the present era of full employment and high wages. It applies to Canada as well as the United States. The lecture on the subject, by the columnist and moralist of The New York Sun, should not go amiss. Dave Boone says to his countrymen:

With all the agencies, bureaus, administrations and experts that Uncle Sam has at his command, you'd think he could manage to arrange what this country needs more than anything else, a campaign for thrift. He's spending millions on propaganda to influence the public but none on this paramount subject.

Washington runs every drive under the sun except a drive for horse sense, the simple virtues and the value of such time-proved adages as "Take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves," and "A fool and his money are soon parted."

"Easy come, easy go" is the ruinous slogan that is running the country into inflation.

Thrift! Thrift! Thrift! It ought to be hammered home twenty-four hours a day in times like these, and Washington has the press, the radio and every other instrument at its disposal. To help the reckless spending now going — is plain insanity. It's exactly like a man standing on the roof of a burning building using the hose to water orchids.

It would be like painting the lily to try and add anything to the foregoing.

A WOMAN DEFINES US MEN

Men are what women marry. They have two hands, two feet and sometimes two wives; but never more than one dollar at a time. Like Turkish cigarettes, they are all made of the same material; the only difference is that some of them are better disguised than others. Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes: husbands, bachelors and widowers.

A bachelor is an eligible mass of obstinacy, entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are three types; Prizes, surprises, and consolation prizes. Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest forms of sculpture, common sense, faith, hope and charity, mostly charity.

If you flatter a man, you frighten him to death; if you don't you bore har to death.

If you permit him to make love to you, he gots tired of you in the (and if you don't he thinks you are a cyni.

If you wear gay colors, rouge and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out; if you wear a little brown benet and a wilored suit, he takes you out and stares all night at the woman in gay colors, rouge and a startling hat.

If you are the dinging vine type, he doubts that you have a brain in your head; while wou are modern, advanced and independent, he doubts that you have a heart.

If you are silly, he longs for a bright mate, but if you are brilliant, he longs for a playmate.

Man is just a worm in the dust; he comes along, wiggles for a while and finally some chicken gets him.

And then again, it would only be natural for radio chains, fearing Government whip-cracking, to refrain from broadcasting anything of a nature which might offend the bureaucrats, wouldn't it?

WORK AND HEALTH

The urgent necessity for increased war production, and the shortage of manpower, have made it necessary to establish a 48-hour week in most industries. It may be necessary for millions of people on this continent to work more than 48 hours a week.

How far do long hours of work reduce the efficiency of workers? Many cases of absenteeism are caused by sickness, and sickness may be partly due to fatigue incurred in working periods.

Half a century ago, the majority of industrial plants were probably run on very near a 60-hour week. It was a long day, but people seemed to stand it fairly well. When an eight hour working day became general, it was considered a short and normal working week. The factory workers of most European countries are probably working considerably more than that.

The speed of industry is greater than formerly, and people are often keyed up to mechanical operations calling for fast tork. This may create greater strain than we won in old times. Also in these times when many people drive long distances to reach their jobs, their fatigue may be increased by covering this distance.

The government and industry will do what they can to relieve excessive fatigue in industrial work. Little will be gained by working people so hard that they lose their energy and power. People can help stand whatever strain there is in work by good care of themselves.

If they get plenty of sleep, if they spend days off in a restful way, if they get nourishing and well cooked food, if they avoid vices, and if they keep mentally calm and good natured, they can stand fairly long hours. They will be glad to do so, if it will shorten the war and bring back the boys at the earliest possible date.

Penned and Pilfered

When you greet people with a warm smile and hearty handshake, it is a sign you are happy in your home location, and that you like the town you live in.

The government protects us from many forms of danger, but we can protect ourselves against some losses of business and work by spending our money at home.

Letters To The Editor

WHY DO YOU PAY SCHOOL TAXES

The Independent,

I often hear complaints from owners of property, some of whom have no children attending public school, that the school taxes are all the bunk.

Listed below are a few good reasons why we are glad to pay our school taxes.

This money supplies a good building to house the children while learning to be responsible citizens. It furnishes capable teachers to teach not only writing, arithmetic and reading, but honor, courtesy and decency.

It supplies all these things no matter if you are rich or poor.

When your boy or girl leaves school they are equipped with something more priceless than gold; knowledge which, if exercised, they will never lose.

It supplies the future generation with responsible citizens with active minds that can think (of which we have too few).

It supplies heat, light and repairs for the buildings which house your children.

So. Mr. property owner, read the whys of taxes and let's hear less grousing about school taxes.

Go and see your school and the teachers. It would be good for your soul.

Grimsby, Ont., December 1, 1943.

Mr. J. Orion Livingston, Editor, Grimsby Independent. Dear Mr. Livingston:-

Having completed one year as convener for Ditty Bags on the Grimsby Committee of The Navy League of Canada, May I through the medium of your column express my appreciation to every one who helped in any way.

There were many who filled Ditty bags individually, also several groups and organizations.
Others made gifts of money and materials to help fill many more. To those who made "housewives" which are so necessary. Local merchants sold from their dwindling stocks, (at a reduced price) to support the Merchant Navy, and yourself Mr. Editor gave us so much publicity, which we could not have been successful without. To all of these grand folks
I extend my grateful thanks for the wonderful cooperation.

Three hundred and thirty-five Ditty Bags, with an approximate value of Fifteen hundred dollars have been dispatched to Headquarters, certainly an enviable record for Grimsby. May the good work continue.

Cooks Blend Christmas Pudding

Christmas pudding, complete with proper fixings including a spot immensity of Canada. of stout and a drop of rum to blend the flavorings, is now maturing in Canadian National Railways pantries in readiness for the holiday season. When the "zero" day comes next month, Christmas pudding will appear on the menu of System dining cars and station restaurants from coast to coast.

The preparation of Christmas pudding by Canadian National chefs is an annual event observed with complete respect for tradition and the faithful observance of an old English recipe. Despite wartime difficulties, all the necessary ingredients were obtained and will be included in the coming issue. Hitherto, the kitchen of a railway dining car has been the scene of the mixing and cooking, but the 1943 edition was prepared in the restaurant facilities at the new Central Station in Montreal. The "mixing" had a martial atmosphere owing to the presence of military cooks desirous of gaining a hint or two concerning pudding in wholesale quantities, information later useful in army kitchens for the forthcoming issue of "Pudding, plum, all ranks, for the use or."

More than three tons of pudding, well over 6,000 pounds, were twice); pass for service dance; tin with three aspirin tablets; mixed, steamed and stored in readiness for the holiday season, an amount sufficient for more than 36,000 servings. Domestic tradition late bar; two empty match folders and one full one; piece of black requires Christmas pudding to be boiled in a cloth, but railway chefs steam the mixture and for transportatoin convenience place the product in tins, 5,000 such containers being required this year.

Kitchen Aprons

(This is an answer to Mary Ferguson Legler's poem "Kitchen Aprons," published in Saturday Evening Post:)

What! Kitchen aprons out of style? Lady, come out of town, Where roads in narrow mile on mile twist up the hills and down; Where corn waves green in spreading fields in summer's sunny weather:

Where ladies over quilts and teas and socials get together. Come to the frier tly village stree and see them flutter by,

Or stand and gossip, trim and neat, of children, clothes and pie. Just step within the post-office, or in the village store, And aprons will come dashing in and hurry out the door.

You'll hear, "I've left the dinner on, and need a can of soup," Or "I must run, Marie's asleep, and Johnny has the croup." And ladies, baskets, pinafores, and calm, contented faces Are hastening back along the street to fill their little places.

Ah, lady, where contentment is, and quiet, ease and peace, The kitchen apron habit, and the need, will never cease. Perhaps in cities' man-made rush you may not see them more, But where there's time for living you'll find the pinafore.

The Forest That Was

When the earliest settlers began coming into the district between the Niagara River and Sarnia (which includes Grimsby) the whole area south of a dipping line from Toronto almost as far North as Goderich was a solid mass of hardwood timber, occupying some 8,000 square

The settlers went relentlessly to work to destroy the forest, root and branch. And why not? It was their deadly enemy, harbouring beasts of prey, Indians, and always the hazard of fire. They succeeded all too well, for there are miles of farm lands in southern Ontario as bleak and draughty as the open prairie. Thousands of dollars are being poured into the shifting sands of Norfolk county in a desperate attempt to halt them by costly reforestation schemes.

Only small isolated remnants of black walnut, hickory, and black and white oak are left of the only hardwood forest in the whole

It would certainly do no harm to include a strenuous and effective reforestation campaign in our much discussed post war program.

Inside Information

Ever wonder what a Wren carries in that black purse she hangs from a shoulder? The navy's information branch commandeered one of them and dumped out the contents and here's what it contained:

Eight dog-eared letters; wallet complete with snapshots, two stamps six keys, two laundry tickets, victory bond receipt, $1 bill, 29 cents in change, business card tendered by "a man on the train," and note saying "call 3-8985 before 6 p.m.;" small comb; compact; one new lipstick; one old lipstick; one lipstick without top; nail file; small bottle of perfome; five sheets facial tissue;

Address book with incoherent notes like: "Auntie B. size 91/2:" fountain pen and pencil set; scrap of paper with train schedules; three bobby-pins, bent hairpin: identification card; pass for naval building; form requesting 48-hour leave (times scratched out and changed

Plan Early For Christmas Baking

That's all.

Christmas is just around the corner and it isn't too early to begin to plan for any special baking for, if there are to be Christmas cakes and cookies this year, they need to be planned for in advance.

If Christmas just wouldn't be Christmas without shortbread, better start scrimping a bit on the butter ration. Planned economy now, can accumulate a reserve of sugar from rations for cakes and cookies.

Of course recipes require further streamlining this year; less fruit and fewer eggs will go into carea and cookies and the king and amount of fruit will be conditioned by what the grocer has on his shelves rather than what used to be used in former years. You won't find seeded raisins though there rub together until there are no will be seed!cas, there will be or- lumps of fat. Add fruit, mixing ange, lemon and mixed peel if no citron. Cherries may be either eggs, grape juice, molasses and candled or maraschino.

In recent weeks the Consumer Section of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has tested a great many recipes in o der to be able to give you the best in quality and flavour in spite of limitations in ingradients.

Packing With Care For Duration

These war days ,many Canadian homes have to be to broken up and furniture and beloved possessions must go into storage for the duration.

The following tips from Consumer Information Service will help make certain that these possessions are not damaged while stored away.

Clothing, bedding, and other articles should be perfectly clean before they are stored away. Articles such as woollens and blankets which have been washed or drycleaned should be aired thoroughly and then placed in boxes with quantities of moth preventatives. If the containers are sealed after this, protection against moths will be assured.

Linens and cottons require careful washing so that all the starch and dirt is removed. They should then be stored away. To keep them from becoming yellowed, white pieces should be wrapped in blue or black paper.

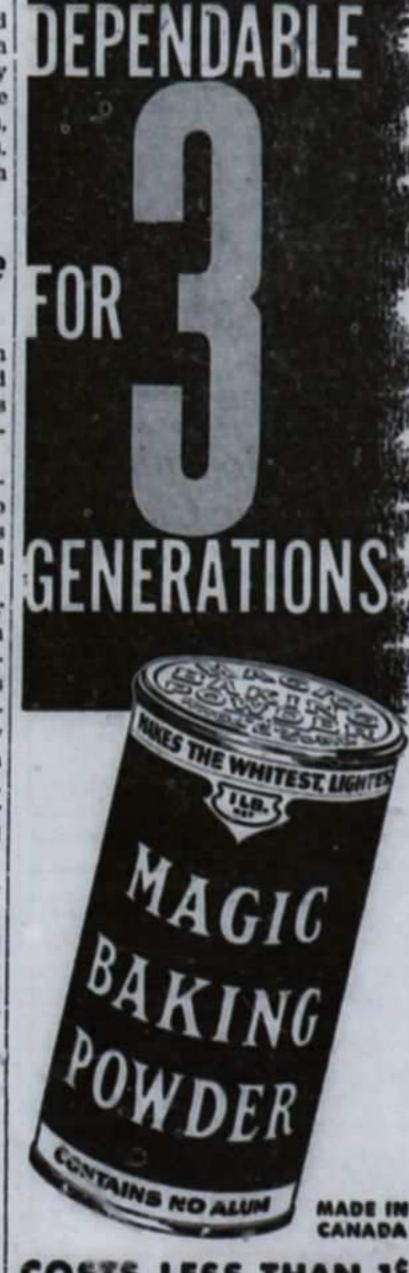

Rugs must be carefully cleaned, front and back, sprinkled with moth crystals and rolled up in heavy brown paper. Cracks in the paper, and the ends of the roll should be sealed.

Furniture presents a larger problem. Solid wood pieces should be well-covered with paper so that they will not be scratched or spoiled by dampness.

Stir in sugar, egg yolk and salt, furniture requires a good brushing using a wooden spoon. Mix in flour, and cleaning all over. Moth crysadding it little at a time until tals should then be sprinkled libermixture is too stiff to work with ally on the furniture, particularly a spoon. Wooden Wheels Save Rubber

It was a bright lad in the Winnipeg shops of Trans-Canada Air Lines who thought of beating the tire shortage by using wooden wheels on cargo trucks. The carpenter shop went into production and the photograph, top, shows Carpenter John Pearson at work. The whirling saw cuts thin sheets of wood into semi-circles. These are fastened together on the wheel-frame and then the wooden tire is shaped on the lathe, a strip of canvas applied to it, and the whole thing painted. The finished job is shown below, being admired by one of T. C. A.'s girl cargo handlers. The trucks carry buggug, mail and express to the planes.

incident of Scotch generosity: passing through a shopping thoroughfare I stopped with a friend of mine to look at a butcher shop window. The butcher beckoned mo to go in and this I did. He had in his hand a piece of brown paper, wrapped up 11/4 lb. of sausages and said take these home for your supper and what sausages. A few weeks ago I went on an educational tour through Windsor Castle. I also went to Guy Bernardo's wedding. I think he sent the account on to you. Well, this is all the news so with best regards to you all in Grimsby and hope all have a good Christmas. I remain, Yours sincerely, Pte. W. E. Farrow.

He reports that the people of England are bearing up fine under the stress of four years of war and will certainly see the scrap through

During the great air blitz over London his unit was camped just on the outskirts of the city and while he says the destruction was terrible to behold, yet it was nothing compared to what is happening in Berlin. Where houses and build-...re haphazardly blown to bits in London, the R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. boys are blasting whole blocks to smithereens in Berlin.

Question of asking for an amendment in present regulations which would permit high school boys and girls to work in basket factories was discussed at some length and will be brought up at the first joint meeting of the Farm Service Force camp committees.

Following discussion re salvage of baskets, a motion was passed recommending "that matter of basket salvage be left to such time as growers know crop prospects." A. noski. Undergraduates: Richard W. It was pointed out that 20 million baskets are manufactured and sold in Ontario each year.

COAL IS SCARCE! - Wasting fuel by overheating your home is unpatriotic. It has long been recognized that moderate temperatures are better for the health. To ensure comfort, get into warmer clothes rather than pile on more fuel.
